

Instrument of Delegation

Delegation of National Board functions under the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law as in force in each State and Territory to Committees of the Board and the Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency

Preliminary

- 1.1 The Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Health Practice Board of Australia (the 'Board'), pursuant to s 37 of the National Law, resolved to delegate its functions as specified in this instrument of delegation ('instrument') on 24 May 2017.
- 1.2 This instrument is a complete record of the Board's resolution with respect to the delegation of its functions. The Board resolved to revoke all prior delegations on 24 May 2017.
- 1.3 The Board resolved to authorise the Chair of the Board to sign this instrument as evidence of the Board's decision to delegate its functions in compliance with Clause 29(3) to Schedule 7 of the National Law.

Definitions

 - 2.14.1 a decision to refuse to register the person;

- 2.14.2 a decision to refuse to endorse the person's registration;
- 2.14.3 a decision to refuse to renew the person's registration;
- 2.14.4 a decision to refuse to renew the endorsement of the person's registration;
- 2.14.5 a decision to impose or change a condition on a person's registration or the endorsement of the person's registration, other than –
 - (i) a condition relating to the person's qualification for general registration in the health profession; and
 - (ii) a condition imposed by section 112(3)(a);
- 2.14.6 a decision to refuse to change or remove a condition imposed on the person's registration or the endorsement of the person's registration;
- 2.14.7 a decision to refuse to change or revoke an undertaking given by the person to the Board;
- 2.14.8 a decision to suspend the person's registration.

Delegation of Board functions

- 3.1 Principles of delegation:
 - 3.1.1 The purpose of this instrument is to allow the Board to discharge its functions as set out in s 35 of the National Law.
 - 3.1.2 To the extent that the Board's functions are capable of being delegated, the Board delegates its functions to AHPRA and the committees of the Board as set out below.
 - 3.1.3 A delegate may in the performance of a delegated function do anything that is incidental to the delegated function.
 - 3.1.4 A delegation does not derogate from the power of the Board to act itself in the matter, so long as the delegate has not yet exercised the function or power.
 - 3.1.5 A delegate may only exercise a function, or make a decision, subject to the limitations imposed on the delegated function. If the decision to be made is not within the limitation which applies to the delegated function, or the delegate is not sure what the decision should be, the delegate must not make the decision. The delegate may, however, make recommendations to the National Board or another delegate.
- 3.2 Powers and functions that have not been delegated by the Board are in Column C to the Schedule.
- 3.3 The Board delegates to the Registration and Notification Committee the following functions of the Board:

3.3.1 The functions listed in Column D to the Schedule, subject to the limitations (if any) in Column G to the Schedule.

3.3.2 All functions delegated to AHPRA.

3.4 The Board delegates to the Immediate Action Committee the following functions of the Board:

3.4.1 The functions listed in Column E to the Schedule, subject to the limitations (if any) in Column G.

3.5 The Board delegates to AHPRA the following functions of the Board:

3.5.1 The provision of notice(s), whether or not expressly provided for in this instrument and whether from the Board or a committee of the Board, to any entity or person; and,

3.5.2 The publishing of information on the website, whether or not expressly provided for in this instrument

3.5.3 The functions listed in Column F to the Schedule, subject to the limitations (if any) in Column G to the Schedule.

3.5.4 AHPRA may not exercise any function that is an appellable decision unless specified otherwise
