

From:

Sent: Thursday, September 26, 2024 2:40 PM

To: Accreditation Committee Consultations

Subject: draft guidance

I was unable to find any evidence that indicated that complaints against older doctors are greater than younger doctors. Could you provide that evidence on the web please. That would indicate to us just how big a problem it is.

In addition I have not seen anything from you that the number of successful complaints is higher. Is the higher number of complaints partly a result of ageism of the complainants?

Tim Woodruff FRACP