

Competent Authority pathway to general registration

Check that you have a primary qualification in medicine and surgery awarded by a training institution recognised by both the AMC and the World Directory of Medical Schools (WDOMS)

Apply to the AMC for primary source verification (PSV) of your primary medical qualification

Meet criteria for eligibility for one of the Competent Authority pathway categories

Secure a suitable position in a hospital

Secure a suitable position
in general practice

Undertake a PESCI

Set up Ahpra portal

Apply for provisional registration

Commence supervised practice and submit orientation report (ORIG-30) and work performance report (WRIG-30) after three months practice

Satisfactorily complete 12 months supervised practice (47 weeks FTE)

Apply for general registration