- Employee of the Commonwealth or the Australian Trade Commission who works outside Australia.
- Justice of the peace.

Step 3
You must ensure the Authorised Officer certifies your documents in line with Ahpra’s requirements. See page two of this document for instructions and examples.

The Authorised Officer will:

- check your copy is the same as the original.
- visually compare your face against the photograph on any identity document to confirm that you are the person pictured in any of the documents with a photograph, and
- certify the copy of your documents with a photo and documents without a photo as outlined on page two of this document.

Incorrectly certified documents will not be accepted and will cause delays.

Step 1
Check the copy provided to you is the same as the original document
If the document contains a photograph (e.g. passport, driver’s licence) visually compare the person’s face presenting the document against the photograph to confirm that the person presenting the document is the person pictured in the copy with a photograph.

On documents with a photograph, write or stamp: ‘I certify that this is a true copy of the original and the photograph is a true likeness of the person presenting the document as sighted by me.’

Incorrect wording – refers to the document only, it must also refer to the person

Correct wording – refers to the document and to the person

Documents without a photo
On a single-page document, write or stamp: ‘I have sighted the original document and certify this to be a true copy of the original.’
On documents with more than one page, initial every page and write or stamp the following on the last page: ‘I have sighted the original document and certify this to be a true copy of the original.’

Incorrect wording – refers to the document only, it must also refer to the person

Correct wording – refers to the document

All documents
The certification statement must be on the front of the copy of the document.
You must also write or stamp on the copy:
• your signature
• your full name
• your occupation or profession (including your occupation or profession number, if relevant)
• your stamp or seal (if relevant)
• your phone number, and
• the date.
