Notes on completing this form

AHPRA and the National Health Practitioner Boards treat all personal information provided by an individual in support of an application for appointment in accordance with the laws that apply to AHPRA, including the applicable provisions of the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth).

The personal information you provide is required for the purposes of processing and assessing your application. It may be shared with other persons or organisations in order to assess your application. Should you wish to gain access to your personal information held by AHPRA please contact our privacy officer by writing to the privacy officer at the AHPRA office in your state or territory.

When you provide us with information about other individuals, we rely on you to make them aware that such information will or may be provided to us as part of the application process.

Please complete the form as accurately and comprehensively as possible. Please write your answers in block capitals, and provide an answer for each question. Do not leave any questions blank.

Conflicts of interest (Q A7)

Conflicts of interests can be actual, potential or perceived, and should be declared to ensure that any risks are managed. Detailed guidance can be found on the State Services Authority website in its Conflict of Interest Policy Framework – www.ssa.vic.gov.au and in its eLearning guide on Conflicts of Interest.

Findings of guilt (Q B6)

A “finding of guilt” includes convictions, fines associated with criminal charges, good behaviour bonds, undertakings and community based orders, even where no conviction was recorded. It does not include a conviction under any prescribed spent convictions scheme.
