

From: [REDACTED] >
Sent: Monday, August 12, 2024 8:18 PM
To: medboardconsultation
Subject: Health Checks on over 70s

I agree in principle to Health Checks for doctors over 70s although as ever the devil will be in the details.

The checks should not be a cost burden on doctors and the process should be fair and transparent. The same checks should apply to all Health Professionals. However I think 3 years between checks is too long. An awful lot can change in 3 yrs. I think the checks should be annual.

Dr Belinda Bailey age 65