

About to graduate?

Excited to start work as a registered health practitioner?

Smooth the transition from study to work by applying online now.

Create your account and apply

- Create your account and set up your Ahpra portal at www.ahpra.gov.au/Login.
- Complete your online application for registration.
- If you need to upload supporting documents, do it in the application form. Check that you've provided everything you need to prove you've met the requirements for registration.
- Provide as much information as possible when you submit your application including, if relevant, any criminal history, health impairments or English language evidence.
- Pay the required fees and submit your application.

Complete your identity check

- Complete your identity check with InstaID+ as soon as possible. Click the link in the email they send you.

Assessing your application

- Wait for your education provider to send your graduate results to Ahpra.
- You can track the progress of your application in your Ahpra portal.
- Once complete, Ahpra will finalise your application.

Once your name is published on the Register of health practitioners, you can start work as a registered health practitioner!
