Transition to a new registration type under the National Law

The national registration and accreditation scheme will begin on 1 July 2010 in each State and Territory that has enacted the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law Act 2009 ('the National Law').

The types of registration available under the National Law are:

- General registration
- Specialist registration
  - 13 specialities in dentistry
  - 23 specialities in medicine
  - 1 speciality in podiatry
- Limited registration
  - Postgraduate training or supervised practice
  - Area of need
  - Teaching or research
  - In the public interest
- Provisional registration
- Non-practising registration, and
- Student registration.

Not all registration types are used in every profession.

Endorsement of registration is also used to identify those practitioners with additional qualifications and specific expertise. Endorsements available are:

- Scheduled medicines
- Nurse practitioner
- Midwife practitioner
- Acupuncture, and
- Area of practice.

The attached tables show how current registrants in each State or Territory transition to new registration types, and in some cases to endorsements.
