

Notice to surrender registration as an enrolled nurse, registered nurse or midwife

Section 137 of the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law (the National Law)

This form is to give notice of the surrender of your general and/or non-practising registration as an enrolled nurse, registered nurse or midwife.

Under section 137 of the National Law, a registered health practitioner may, by written notice given to the National Board that registered the practitioner, surrender their registration. The surrender of the registration will take effect from the day the Nursing and Midwifery Board of Australia (the NMBA) receives this notice, or the later day stated in this notice. No refunds apply.

Privacy and confidentiality

The Board and Ahpra are committed to protecting your personal information in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth). The ways the Board and Ahpra may collect, use and disclose your information are set out in the collection statement relevant to this application, available at www.ahpra.gov.au/privacy.

By signing this form, you confirm that you have read the collection statement. Ahpra's privacy policy explains how you may access and seek correction of your personal information held by Ahpra and the Board, how to complain to Ahpra about a breach of your privacy and how your complaint will be dealt with. This policy can be accessed at www.ahpra.gov.au/privacy.

Please select below one registration type to be surrendered. If you wish to surrender more than one, a separate NSUR-40 form is required.

Please note the surrender of your registration will take effect from the day the NMBA receives this notice, unless:

- you are an enrolled nurse awaiting the approval of an application for registration as a registered nurse or registered midwife. In this circumstance, your enrolled nurse registration will not be surrendered until your registered nurse or midwife application is approved. If your registered nurse or midwife application is not approved, your enrolled nurse registration will not be surrendered and you will be advised of the decision by the NMBA.
- you wish for your surrender of registration to take effect from a particular future date. In this circumstance, please indicate below the date from which you wish the surrender of registration to take effect.
