Application for provisional registration For overseas-qualified applicants Profession: Psychology

Part 7 Division 6 of the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law (the National Law)

This form is for overseas-qualified applicants who are relying on one or more of their overseas qualifications to apply for registration as a psychologist in Australia. Overseas-qualified applicants may be granted provisional registration to enable them to undertake a period of supervised practice in Australia and the National Psychology Exam. Supervised practice requirements will depend on the outcome of the assessment of details provided in this application.

For more information about the assessment process and possible outcomes, including supervised practice requirements, please refer to the information for overseas applicants on our website at www.psychologyboard.gov.au/Registration/Overseas-Applicants. You must complete this application yourself. It may not be completed by someone else on your behalf.

If you have previously held general registration as a psychologist in Australia you are not eligible to use this form. You must use the form Application for general registration as a psychologist – AGEN-76 form which can be found at www.psychologyboard.gov.au/Registration/Forms.

This form is not for overseas-qualified applicants who have current registration and a current practising certificate which allows them to practise as a psychologist in New Zealand. If you have the legal authority to practise as a psychologist in New Zealand, you are subject to certain entitlements under the Trans Tasman Mutual Recognition Act 1997 (Cth) and should apply for registration using the form Application for Trans-Tasman mutual recognition as a psychologist – ATMR-76, which can be found at www.psychologyboard.gov.au/Registration/Forms.

It is important that you refer to the Psychology Board of Australia's (the Board) registration standards, codes and guidelines before completing this application. These documents can be found at www.psychologyboard.gov.au.

 This application will not be considered unless it is complete and all supporting documents have been provided. All academic transcripts and evidence of university enrolment must be original documents and must be sent directly to the Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency (Ahpra) by the issuing educational institution.

Any non-English documents must be accompanied by an English language translation. If this form requires you to provide a copy of any document it must be certified as a true copy of the original document. See Certifying documents in the Information and definitions section of this form.

Privacy and confidentiality

The Board and Ahpra are committed to protecting your personal information in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth). The ways the Board and Ahpra may collect, use and disclose your information are set out in the collection statement relevant to this application, available at www.ahpra.gov.au/privacy.

By signing this form, you confirm that you have read the collection statement. Ahpra's privacy policy explains how you may access and seek correction of your personal information held by Ahpra and the Board, how to complain to Ahpra about a breach of your privacy and how your complaint will be dealt with. This policy can be accessed at www.ahpra.gov.au/privacy.

The Board only accepts original documents about your academic qualifications. You must arrange for your institution to send your original academic transcript directly to Ahpra.

You may be asked to provide a copy of the course syllabus or course handbook for each qualification to be assessed, including a list of learning outcomes, assessment tasks and textbooks for each unit studied.

Attach a separate sheet if all details of your psychology qualification do not fit in the space provided.

SECTION E: Qualification components – research and placement

Your qualifications will be assessed against the Board’s approved assessment criteria. This includes an assessment of the competencies and/or graduate attributes of your qualifications, which must be substantially equivalent to those of an approved program. Standards for approved programs are set out in the Australian Psychology Accreditation Council’s Rules for Accreditation & Accreditation Standards for Psychology Courses available at www.apac.au.
 The coursework completed in your qualifications will be assessed based on the information provided in the academic transcripts and course handbooks. Note you may be required to submit further information to support your application.

12. Have you completed a research project in psychology as part of any of the above qualifications? YES

Provide the following details for each research project completed

Research project

Title of research project

Degree under which research project was completed

Subject under which research project was completed (as stated on academic transcript)

Word length

You may be asked to provide further information about your research project, including the title page, abstract, contents page and first chapter or introduction (with English language translation).

Attach a separate sheet if all your research project details do not fit in the space provided.

NO Go to the next question

13. As part of your psychology qualifications, did you complete any supervised placements?

For more information, see Placement in the Information and definitions section of this form.

15. Are you applying for provisional registration to enable you to undertake a Board-approved higher degree at fifth and sixth year or higher leading to general registration?

YES

NO

Go to Section G: Supervised practice or internships undertaken after formal university qualifications

Information and attachment required below – then go to Section K: Suitability statements

Name of course

Name of university

Evidence of enrolment must be sent to Ahpra directly from the university.

SECTION G: Supervised practice or internships undertaken after formal university qualifications

 The Board may grant a reduction in the internship requirements for applicants whose qualifications are considered equivalent to a four or five year accredited sequence of study. For the Board to recognise an applicant’s supervised practice as meeting the post-qualification internship requirements, the supervised practice must be undertaken and completed in a manner that is substantially equivalent to a Board-approved internship program as set out in the Board’s internship guidelines (see the Board’s website).
The supervised practice must have been supervised by a registered or licensed psychologist who formally assessed the core competencies set out in the internship guidelines. The supervised practice should have led to registration or endorsement as a psychologist or membership of a professional psychological body or association.

 If you believe your qualification is equivalent to a six-year Australian accredited sequence, you do not need to complete this section. The information can be provided later if necessary.

SECTION H: Work history

16. What is your full practice history?

 It is important that you refer to Curriculum vitae in the Information and definitions section of this form for mandatory requirements of the CV. Your curriculum vitae will further inform the Board in relation to your recency of practice and registration history.

 You must attach to your application a signed and dated curriculum vitae that describes your full practice history and any clinical or procedural skills training undertaken.
You must declare on your CV the following: “The curriculum vitae is true and correct as at (insert date).”

SECTION I: Registration history

17. Are you currently, or have you previously been, registered as a health practitioner in Australia or overseas?

YES

NO Go to the next question

i Registration history only applies if you are currently, or have been previously, registered as a health practitioner.

If you have been registered outside of Australia, the Board requires a Certificate of Registration Status or Certificate of Good Standing from every jurisdiction outside of Australia in which you are currently, or have previously been, registered as a health practitioner during the past five years.

Certificates must be dated within three months of your application being received by Ahpra.

If you have been registered outside of Australia, you must arrange for original Certificates of Registration Status or Certificates of Good Standing to be forwarded directly from the registration authority to your Ahpra state office.

If your Certificates of Registration Status or Certificates of Good Standing are in a foreign language, Ahpra will arrange for English language translations directly with a NAATI-accredited translator on your behalf. You may be required to pay for the translation of these documents and will be consulted before any translation costs are incurred.

Refer to www.ahpra.gov.au/About-Ahpra/Contact-Us for your Ahpra state office address.

Attach a separate sheet if all your registration history does not fit in the space provided.

SECTION J: Registration period

i There is no set registration period for provisional registration. We'll grant you registration for 12 months from the date of the Board's approval or the date you select, whichever is the latter. If it takes more than 12 months to complete the provisional requirements, you'll need to renew your registration.

18. If this application is approved, when would you like your provisional registration to begin?

You can opt to have your registration start on the date of the Board's approval or a date nominated by you, up to 90 days into the future, as long as the date is later than the Board's approval. For more information, see Registration approval dates in the Information and definitions section of the form.

On the date below, or the date of the Board's approval, whichever is the latter

i You can't start practising until registration has been granted. Please consider if the date you have nominated gives you time to complete any pre-employment or pre-training program requirements. You can update this date by contacting your Regulatory Officer at any time until we finalise your application.

Once your registration has been granted, you cannot change your registration start date.

SECTION K: Suitability statements

 Information required by the Board to assess your suitability for registration is detailed in the following questions. It is recommended that you provide as much information as possible to enable the Board to reach a timely and informed decision.

Please note that registration depends on suitability as defined in the National Law, and the requirements set out in the Board's registration standards. Refer to www.psychologyboard.gov.au/Standards-and-Guidelines for further information.

www.psychologyboard.gov.au/Standards-and-Guidelines/Codes-Guidelines-Policies.

29. Is your registration in any profession currently suspended or cancelled in Australia (under the National Law or a corresponding prior Act) or overseas?

You must attach to this application details of any registration suspension or cancellation.

30. Have you previously had your registration cancelled, refused or suspended in Australia (under the National Law or a corresponding prior Act) or overseas?

You must attach to this application details of any cancellation, refusal or suspension.

31. Has your registration ever been subject to conditions, undertakings or limitations in Australia (under the National Law or a corresponding prior Act) or overseas?

You must attach to this application details of any conditions, undertakings or limitations.

32. Are you disqualified from applying for registration, or being registered, in any profession in Australia (under the National Law, a corresponding prior Act or a law of a co-regulatory jurisdiction), or overseas?

Co-regulatory jurisdiction means a participating jurisdiction (of the National Law) in which the Act applying (the National Law) declares that the jurisdiction is not participating in the health, performance and conduct process provided by Divisions 3 to 12 of Part 8 (of the National Law).

YES

NO

You must attach to this application details of any disqualifications.

33. Have you been, or are you currently, the subject of conduct, performance or health proceedings whilst registered under the National Law, a corresponding prior Act, or the law of another jurisdiction in Australia or overseas, where those proceedings were not finalised?

NO

You must attach to this application details of any conduct, performance or health proceedings.

SECTION L: Obligations, consent and declaration

Before you sign and date this form, make sure that you have answered all of the relevant questions correctly and read the statements below. An incomplete form may delay processing and you may be asked to complete a new form. For more information, see the Information and definitions section of this form.

Obligations of registered health practitioners

The National Law pt 7 div 11 sub-div 3 establishes the legislative obligations of registered health practitioners. A contravention of these obligations, as detailed at points 1, 2, 4, 5, 6 or 8 below does not constitute an offence but may constitute behaviour for which health, conduct or performance action may be taken by the Board. Registered health practitioners are also obligated to meet the requirements of their Board as established in registration standards, codes and guidelines.

Continuing professional development

1. A registered health practitioner must undertake the continuing professional development required by an approved registration standard for the health profession in which the practitioner is registered.

Professional indemnity insurance arrangements

2. A registered health practitioner must not practise the health profession in which the practitioner is registered unless appropriate professional indemnity insurance arrangements are in force in relation to the practitioner's practice of the profession.
3. A National Board may, at any time by written notice, require a registered health practitioner registered by the Board to give the Board evidence of the appropriate professional indemnity insurance arrangements that are in force in relation to the practitioner's practice of the profession.
4. A registered health practitioner must not, without reasonable excuse, fail to comply with a written notice given to the practitioner under point 3 above.

Notice of certain events

5. A registered health practitioner must, within 7 days after becoming aware that a relevant event has occurred in relation to the practitioner, give the National Board that registered the practitioner written notice of the event. Relevant event means—
 - a) the practitioner is charged, whether in a participating jurisdiction or elsewhere, with an offence punishable by 12 months imprisonment or more; or
 - b) the practitioner is convicted of or the subject of a finding of guilt for an offence, whether in a participating jurisdiction or elsewhere, punishable by imprisonment; or
 - c) appropriate professional indemnity insurance arrangements are no longer in place in relation to the practitioner's practice of the profession; or
 - d) the practitioner's right to practise at a hospital or another facility at which health services are provided is withdrawn or restricted because of the practitioner's conduct, professional performance or health; or
 - e) the practitioner's billing privileges are withdrawn or restricted under the Human Services (Medicare) Act 1973 (Cth) because of the practitioner's conduct, professional performance or health; or
 - f) the practitioner's authority under a law of a State or Territory to administer, obtain, possess, prescribe, sell, supply or use a scheduled medicine or class of scheduled medicines is cancelled or restricted; or
 - g) a complaint is made about the practitioner to the following entities—
 - (i) the chief executive officer under the Human Services (Medicare) Act 1973 (Cth);
 - (ii) an entity performing functions under the Health Insurance Act 1973 (Cth);
 - (iii) the Secretary within the meaning of the National Health Act 1953 (Cth);
 - (iv) the Secretary to the Department in which the Migration Act 1958 (Cth) is administered;
 - (v) another Commonwealth, State or Territory entity having functions relating to professional services provided by health practitioners or the regulation of health practitioners.
 - h) the practitioner's registration under the law of another country that provides for the registration of health practitioners is suspended or cancelled or made subject to a condition or another restriction.

Change in principal place of practice, address or name

6. A registered health practitioner must, within 30 days of any of the following changes happening, give the National Board that registered the practitioner written notice of the change and any evidence providing proof of the change required by the Board—
 - a) a change in the practitioner's principal place of practice;
 - b) a change in the address provided by the registered health practitioner as the address the Board should use in corresponding with the practitioner;
 - c) a change in the practitioner's name.

Employer's details

7. A National Board may, at any time by written notice given to a health practitioner registered by the Board, ask the practitioner to give the Board the following information—
 - a) information about whether the practitioner is employed by another entity;
 - b) if the practitioner is employed by another entity—
 - (i) the name of the practitioner's employer; and
 - (ii) the address and other contact details of the practitioner's employer.
8. The registered health practitioner must not, without reasonable excuse, fail to comply with the notice.

Consent to nationally coordinated criminal history check

I consent to Ahpra and the National Board, at any time during the next 12 months, obtaining a written report about my criminal history through a nationally coordinated criminal history check. I acknowledge that:

- Ahpra and the National Boards may obtain a written report about my criminal history at any time during the next 12 months
- a complete criminal history, including resolved and unresolved charges, spent convictions, and findings of guilt for which no conviction was recorded, will be released to Ahpra and the National Board
- my personal information currently held by Ahpra and from this form will be provided to the Australian Criminal Intelligence Commission (ACIC) and Australian police agencies for the purpose of conducting a nationally coordinated criminal history check, including all names under which I am or have been known
- my personal information may be used by police for general law enforcement purposes, including those purposes set out in the Australian Crime Commission Act 2002 (Cth)
- my identity information provided with this application will be enrolled with Ahpra and used by Ahpra and the National Board when obtaining a written report about my criminal history at any time during the next 12 months
- if I have not provided any identity information with this application, and Ahpra needs to obtain a written report about my criminal history at any time during the next 12 months, I will provide the required identity information when requested by Ahpra
- Ahpra may validate documents in support of this application, or that I provide when requested at any time during the next 12 months, as evidence of my identity at any time during the next 12 months
- if and when this application for renewal of registration is granted, Ahpra may obtain a written report about my criminal history at any time during the next 12 months for the purpose of:
 - a) checking a statement made by me in this application for renewal,
 - b) an audit carried out by the National Board,
 - c) assessing my ongoing suitability to hold health practitioner registration, including if a complaint is made about me to Ahpra, or
 - d) considering an application made by me about my health practitioner registration, and
- I may dispute the result of the nationally coordinated criminal history check by contacting Ahpra in the first instance.

Declaration

I declare that:

- the statements made, and any documents provided, in support of this application are true and correct, and
- I am the person named in this application and in any documents provided.

I make this declaration in the knowledge that a false declaration amounts to a contravention of the National Law and may lead to refusal of registration or health, conduct or performance action under the National Law.

I confirm that if I advertise any of my services or my business, the advertising* complies with section 133 of the National Law and the National Board’s Advertising Guidelines as it:

- Is not false, misleading or deceptive or likely to be misleading or deceptive
- does not offer a gift, discount or other inducement without stating the terms and conditions of the offer
- does not use testimonials or purported testimonials about the service or business
- does not create an unreasonable expectation of beneficial treatment, and
- does not directly or indirectly encourage the indiscriminate or unnecessary use of my services.

*For information about advertising obligations please see the advertising resources page on:

<https://www.ahpra.gov.au/Publications/Advertising-hub.aspx>

I acknowledge that:

- the National Board may validate documents provided in support of this application as evidence of my identity
- failure to complete all relevant sections of this application for renewal of registration and to enclose all supporting documentation may result in this application not being accepted
- notices required under the National Law and other correspondence relating to my application for renewal of registration will be sent to me electronically to me via my nominated email address
- Ahpra uses overseas cloud service providers to hold, process, and maintain personal information where this is reasonably necessary to enable Ahpra to perform its functions under the National Law. These providers include Salesforce, whose operations are located in Japan and the United States of America.

I undertake to comply with the all relevant legislation and National Board registration standards, codes and guidelines.

I understand that personal information that I provide may be given to a third party for regulatory purposes, as authorised or required by the National Law.

Information and definitions

CERTIFYING DOCUMENTS

DO NOT send original documents.

Copies of documents provided in support of an application, or other purpose required by the National Law, must be certified as true copies of the original documents. Each and every certified document must:

- be in English. If original documents are not in English, you must provide a certified copy of the original document and translation in accordance with Ahpra guidelines, which are available at www.ahpra.gov.au/registration/registration-process
- be initialled on every page by the authorised officer. For a list of people authorised to certify documents, visit www.ahpra.gov.au/certify.aspx
- be annotated on the last page as appropriate e.g. 'I have sighted the original document and certify this to be a true copy of the original' and signed by the authorised officer,
- for documents containing a photograph, the following certification statement must be included by the authorised officer, 'I certify that this is a true copy of the original and the photograph is a true likeness of the person presenting the document as sighted by me', along with their signature, and
- list the name, date of certification, and contact phone number, and position number (if relevant) and have the stamp or seal of the authorised officer (if relevant) applied.

Certified copies will only be accepted via the Online Upload Service at www.ahpra.gov.au/registration/online-upload. Photocopies of previously certified documents will not be accepted. For more information, Ahpra's guidelines for certifying documents can be found online at www.ahpra.gov.au/certify.aspx.

CHANGE OF NAME

You must provide evidence of a change of name if you have ever been formally known by another name(s) or any of the documentation you are providing in support of your application is in another name(s).

Evidence must be a certified copy of one of the following documents:

- standard marriage certificate (ceremonial certificates will not be accepted)
- deed poll, or
- change of name certificate.

Faxed, scanned or emailed copies of certified documents will not be accepted.

CRIMINAL HISTORY

Criminal history includes the following, whether in Australia or overseas, at any time:

- every conviction of a person for an offence
- every plea of guilty or finding of guilt by a court of the person for an offence, whether or not a conviction is recorded for the offence, and
- every charge made against the person for an offence.

Under the National Law, spent convictions legislation does not apply to criminal history disclosure requirements. Therefore, you must disclose your complete criminal history as detailed above, irrespective of the time that has lapsed since the charge was laid or the finding of guilt was made.

The Board will decide whether a health practitioner's criminal history is relevant to the practice of the profession.

You are not required to obtain or provide your Australian criminal history report, Ahpra will obtain this check on your behalf. You may be required to obtain international criminal history reports.

For more information, view the full registration standard online at www.psychologyboard.gov.au/Standards-and-Guidelines.

ENGLISH LANGUAGE SKILLS

To be eligible for registration you must be able to provide evidence of English language skills that meet the Board's English language skills registration standard which can be found at www.psychologyboard.gov.au/Standards-and-Guidelines.

IMPAIRMENT

Impairment means a physical or mental impairment, disability, condition, or disorder (including substance abuse or dependence) that detrimentally affects or is likely to detrimentally affect your capacity to practise the profession.

The National Law requires you to declare any impairments at the time of application. If you have an impairment, you will need to provide details of the impairment and how it is managed.

PLACEMENT

Placement means the supervised professional practice of psychology undertaken within a workplace setting (including any clinic or other service operated by the Education Provider) where psychological services are provided to clients as part of a Program of Study, that is, as part of a formal university qualification. The placement must have been supervised and assessed by a registered/licensed psychologist, resulting in a mark being awarded.

PRACTICE

Practice means any role, whether remunerated or not, in which the individual uses their skills and knowledge as a practitioner in their regulated health profession. Practice is not restricted to the provision of direct clinical care. It also includes using professional knowledge in a direct non-clinical relationship with patients or clients, working in management, administration, education, research, advisory, regulatory or policy development roles and any other roles that impact on safe, effective delivery of health services in the health profession.

PROFESSIONAL INDEMNITY INSURANCE (PII)

You must have PII, or some alternative form of indemnity cover that complies with the Board's registration standard, for all aspects of your practice, in all locations in Australia. Initial registration and annual renewal of registration requires a declaration that you will be covered for all aspects of practice for the whole period of the registration. You may be covered by your Australian employer's PII—you will need to confirm this with your employer.

For more information, view the complete registration standard online at www.psychologyboard.gov.au/Standards-and-Guidelines.

REGENCY OF PRACTICE

In accordance with the Recency of practice registration standard an individual must, at the time the application for registration or renewal of registration is made, be able to demonstrate that he or she has practised as a registered psychologist or provisional psychologist for a minimum of 250 hours in the past five years.

Individuals who have successfully completed a Board-approved program of study or Board-approved supervised practice program within the past five years will meet the Recency of practice registration standard.

Practitioners who do not meet the recency of practice requirements may be required to undertake remedial action in order to be eligible to renew their registration. Additional guidance on remedial action to meet recency of practice requirements is included in the Policy for recency of practice requirements.

For more information, view the Recency of practice registration standard and the Policy for recency of practice requirements online at www.psychologyboard.gov.au/Standards-and-Guidelines

TRANSLATING DOCUMENTS

For documents translated in Australia, the translator must be accredited by the National Accreditation Authority for Translators and Interpreters (NAATI), see www.naati.com.au. For documents translated overseas, see www.fit-ift.org for a list of authorities who provide certified translations.

Translations prepared by people familiar with the language of origin, including relatives, friends, acquaintances or other volunteer agencies will not be accepted. For more information, please refer to Translating documents at www.ahpra.gov.au/translate.

REGISTRATION APPROVAL DATES

On the date of the Board's approval – this means your registration will start on the date all application requirements are received and you're assessed as eligible for registration.

On the date below or the date of the Board's approval, whichever is the latter – this means your registration will start on the date you nominated, providing it is after the date of the Board's approval. If not, then your registration will start on the date of the Board's approval.

Before continuing, please refer to the Proof of identity requirements available at www.ahpra.gov.au/identity.
