AHPRA - Public consultation on the draft guideline for informing a National Board about where you practise

Submission by the Pharmacy Council of New South Wales

The Pharmacy Council of New South Wales (the Council) is the statutory body responsible, in partnership with the Health Care Complaints Commission, for managing complaints and notifications related to the conduct, performance or health of pharmacists practising in NSW and NSW pharmacy students. The Council is also responsible for the approval and registration of pharmacy premises in NSW.

The Council has considered the draft guideline Informing a National Board about where you practise and provides the following comments:

1. The Council understands the need for the Board to gather this information and supports the proposal.
2. The Council is of the opinion that the information provided in the draft guideline is clear and appropriate.
