Q25.

Publication of responses

National Boards and AHPRA publish responses at their discretion. We generally publish responses on our websites to encourage discussion and inform the community and stakeholders.

We will not publish responses that contain offensive or defamatory comments or which are outside the scope of the consultation. Before publication, we may remove personally-identifying information, including contact details.

We can accept responses made in confidence. These responses will not be published. Responses may be confidential because they include personal experiences or other sensitive information. Any request for access to a confidential response will be determined in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (Cth), which has provisions to protect personal information and information given in confidence.

You must let us know if you do not want us to publish your responses.

Published responses will include the names (if provided) of the individuals and/or the organisations that made the response.

Q35.

Before you answer questions about the guidelines

Please ensure you have read the public consultation papers before providing feedback as the questions are specific to the revised guidelines for mandatory notifications.

The following questions will help us to gather feedback about the revised guidelines.

Q9.

How easy is it to find specific information in the revised guidelines?

It was straight forward and I could locate the information I wanted to see

Q10.

How relevant is the content of the revised guidelines?

I feel the content is relevant, I would like to see that the comprehension aspect of communication is made clear for those registrants who don't have English as a first language. I note from supervising overseas born nursing students that they often lack the understanding of the meaning and context of health language.

Q12.

Please describe any content that needs to be changed or deleted in the revised guidelines.

Q14.

Should some of the content be moved out of the revised guidelines to be published on the website instead?

Yes

No

Q40.

If yes, please describe what should be moved and your reasons why.

Q22.

How helpful is the structure of the revised guidelines?

Quite helpful and it is very helpful to have the online standardised assessment documents

Q24. Do the revised guidelines clearly explain when a mandatory notification is required and when it is not?

Yes

No

Q31. Please explain your answer.

I find the expectation of reporting / discussing concerns is clear.

Q32. Are the flow charts and diagrams helpful?

- Yes
- No

Q15.

Please explain your answer.

I have no issue with the content or the layout

Q33. Are the risk factor consideration charts helpful?

- Yes
- No

Q34.

Please explain your answer.

It is important to have a clear indication of the potential risks and this enables the supervisor to reflect should any issues arise

Q29.

Are the examples in the revised guidelines helpful?

- Yes
- No

Q36.

Please explain your answer.

Examples allow you to put a scenario into context which although not the same as the practice setting you may be working in but it allows you to reflect and act accordingly

Q16. Should there be separate guidelines for mandatory notifications about students or should the information be included in guidelines about practitioners and students (but as a separate section)?

- Separate guidelines about students
- Separate section about students

Q39.

Please explain your answer.

The needs of students are different to practitioners who have completed their education but may be re-entering or revalidating. The student for whom English isn't their first language may need to have specific issues outlined around comprehension, appropriate language and engagement

Q30.

The revised guidelines explain that it is not an offence to fail to make a mandatory notification when required, but a National Board may take disciplinary action in this situation.

Is this made clear in the revised guidelines?

- Yes
- No

Q37.

Please explain your answer.

I find it clear

Q27.

Is there anything that needs to be added to the revised guidelines?

no

Q17. It is proposed that the guidelines will be reviewed every five years, or earlier if required.

Is this reasonable?

- Yes
- No

Q38.

Please explain your answer.

Five years is a reasonable timeframe especially for practitioners and supervisors.

Q24.

Please describe anything else the National Boards should consider in the review of the guidelines.

Q31.

Please add any other comments or suggestions for the revised guidelines.

Q27.

Thank you!

Thank you for participating in the consultation.

Your answers will be used by the National Boards and AHPRA to improve the Guidelines for mandatory notifications.
