Publication of responses

National Boards and AHPRA publish responses at their discretion. We generally publish responses on our websites to encourage discussion and inform the community and stakeholders.

We will not publish responses that contain offensive or defamatory comments or which are outside the scope of the consultation. Before publication, we may remove personally-identifying information, including contact details.

We can accept responses made in confidence. These responses will not be published. Responses may be confidential because they include personal experiences or other sensitive information. Any request for access to a confidential response will be determined in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (Cth), which has provisions to protect personal information and information given in confidence.

You must let us know if you do not want us to publish your responses.

Published responses will include the names (if provided) of the individuals and/or the organisations that made the response.

Before you answer questions about the guidelines

Please ensure you have read the public consultation papers before providing feedback as the questions are specific to the revised guidelines for mandatory notifications.

The following questions will help us to gather feedback about the revised guidelines.

Q9.

How easy is it to find specific information in the revised guidelines?

very, they are well laid out

Q10.

How relevant is the content of the revised guidelines?

Very, and separating the various groups who may need to report and their responsibilities is very helpful

Q12.

Please describe any content that needs to be changed or deleted in the revised guidelines.

Minor grammatical and punctuation errors only

Q14.

Should some of the content be moved out of the revised guidelines to be published on the website instead?

Yes

No

Q40.

If yes, please describe what should be moved and your reasons why.

having all of the information web based would aid accessibility and transparency

Q22.

How helpful is the structure of the revised guidelines?

Very clear and easy to navigate

Q24. Do the revised guidelines clearly explain when a mandatory notification is required and when it is not?

Yes

No

Q31. Please explain your answer.

very clear, flowcharts and risk assessment tools are very helpful for this

Q32. Are the flow charts and diagrams helpful?

Yes

No

Yes

No

Q34.

Please explain your answer.

Q29.

Are the examples in the revised guidelines helpful?

Yes

No

Q36.

Please explain your answer.

they are a little repetitive, some added variety would contribute to further usability

Q16. Should there be separate guidelines for mandatory notifications about students or should the information be included in guidelines about practitioners and students (but as a separate section)?

Separate guidelines about students

Separate section about students

Q39.

Please explain your answer.

either option is ok but consolidating information into a single source may add usability.

Q30.
